

Painting Complex Flowers in Watercolor with Evelyn Bernal Class Supply List

1. Medium – Large sized spray bottle (a recycled cleaning supply bottle from home is perfect for this). An adjustable nozzle is important.
2. Photos of a complex flower for reference (roses, peonies, etc.)
3. Paints - Evelyn will be using Daniel Smith/Winsor & Newton brands but bring any tubes of watercolor you are comfortable using. Bring a variety of colors.
4. Good quality paper. Please bring whatever paper you feel comfortable working with. Evelyn will be using Fabriano watercolor paper in her demos.
5. Roll of paper towels
6. You can bring plexiglass to attach your paper to but we also have drawing boards available. We also have masking tape.
7. Palette
8. Anything else you commonly use for painting in watercolors!